LOCAL AND GENERAL

Permission has been granted the Fort Shafter social club by the board of supervisors to hold a public dance in the K. of P. hall on the night of July 7.

The tax appeal court will consider the appeal of George W. Macfarlane, with regard to the raised valuation of land now occupied by the Seaside hotel, Monday morning.

The new offices in the Alakea wharf for the board of harbor commissioners have been completed, and a meeting of that organization yesterday afternoon authorized the purchase of necessary furniture.

John C. Colburn's ejectment suit against Supervisor E. H. F. Wolter has been carried up to the supreme court on appeal by the defendant. Judge Cooper returned judgment for Colburn, awarding him the possession of the land in dispute. The appeal is taken on a writ of error.

Through the breaking of the twenty-four-inch water main near 4th avenue, Kaimuki, the people in that section were cut off from water yesterday afternoon at 2:15. It was stated by the public works office yesterday, that it was expected water would be turned on some time this afternoon.

Charles G. Bartlett, manager of the brewing company, returned from Hilo yesterday, where he has been making an investigation of the Hilo branch and incidentally installed a new manager. Upon the resignation of Dick Young, formerly manager of the Hilo branch, Clarence Waterman was appointed to the position and is now at work familiarizing himself with the duties of his new office.

Application for articles of incorporation has been filed in the office of the territorial treasurer for the Pacific Bank, Ltd., to be a Japanese institution. The capitalization is to be $200,000 divided into 4,000 shares, and with a maximum capitalization limit of $5,000,000. The officials are to be J. Yonekura, president; T. Sumida, vice-president; I. Nakasa, cashier; K. Ozawa, secretary; Y. Takakawa, R. Niki, M. Kawahara, I. Nakamura of Kona, K. J. Imanishi of Tokio, and T. Odo, all directors, and K. Tanaka, assistant cashier and T. Iwanaga and K. Sayegusa, auditors.

The closing exercises of the Funahou primary department were held yesterday in the Charles R. Bishop hall, commencing with a chapel service in the morning, which was attended by the entire school. Following this, a Victrola concert, arranged by the teachers and pupils of the sixth grade, was given, and at eleven o'clock the first grade held its exercises. A picnic was held on the campus during the noon recess hour, the afternoon being given over to class day exercises, including the singing of the class song, and the reading of the class history by Miss Evelyn Breckons.

Morning on Change

During the session of the stock and bond exchange this morning Hawaii Commercial played the leading part, figuring in all but one of the eleven sales reported. Most of the buying of this stock was at 24 1/2, but toward the closing time it relaxed to 24, a price it reached the last of the week. Seventy-five shares were sold at that figure, while almost two hundred went at 24 1/2. The market closed with it being offered at the latter price, with only 24 bid. Ten shares of O. R. & L. changed hands at 118, the figure obtaining at its last sale.

Between the session a few bonds of the same company were sold, $4000 O. R. & L. 5s 103, and $1000 5s 103. A lump of 450 shares of Ewa thrown on the market sent the price of that stock down to 15. Sixteen was asked for it, 17 being the figure at its last sale. Oahu Sugar went at 14 between boards, Hawaiian Sugar at 24, and McBryde rose to 2 1/2, probably influenced by the optimistic report made by the directors who visited the plantation over Sunday, returning with assurances that a large crop will be harvested next year.

One citizen of Louisiana is so impressed with the need for medical inspection in the schools that he has furnished the necessary funds for the salary of the health officer in his community.

There is a chance that the daughter of the czar may visit America. It is thought such a move will strengthen diplomatic relations.

Counsel: What is your business? Witness (vaguely): My business? (Pause). My wife's a washerwoman.
